

As a citizen of a small city within a large metropolitan area, I am opposed to the consolidation of news services. Regulations that protect my right to access to a variety of perspectives on current events are very important to me.

Please allow the laws that prohibit ownership of television and newspapers in one city by one company to stand.

Kathy Royer